COVID-19: GAULT NATURE RESERVE IS CLOSING TO PUBLIC ON THURSDAY, MARCH 19 UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

As part of preventing measures to minimize the spread of COVID-19, Gault Nature Reserve of McGill University will be closed to public until further notice.

Our planning has been guided by the recommendations and directives of government public health authorities, and, in every step along the way, we have put the health and safety of the community first.

Thank you for your understanding.
